Thought for the Day

It is a good thing to be rich and a good thing to be strong but it is a better thing to be beloved of many friends.—Euripides.

"Marwood" Scene of Delightful Party Honoring Visitors

Misses Elsie Bowen and Eva Mae Harrell, two lovely visitors from Virginia, guests of their cousins, Misses Stella and Nina Camp, were the inspiration last evening for a charming party when Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson entertained in their honor nearly fifty members of the young society set at their beautiful suburban home, "Marwood." The evening was characterized by utmost informality, which with the cordial hospitality of the host and hostess and their trio of sons, Messrs. Robert, Leslie and Pat Anderson, combined to make the evening thoroughly delightful for all present.

The spacious and elegant home was opened wide, the lower floor being turned over to the pleasure of the guests. Dancing on the terrace to the strains of an electric piano player and cards were the happy diversions of the evening.

Punch was served in the breakfast room as the guests arrived and between dances and games and late in the evening frozen Nesselrode pudding was enjoyed. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Roess and Mrs. Jack Camp.

The beautiful courtesy to the charming Misses Bowen and Harrell was enjoyed by the following: Misses Margaret Wade, Franklin Harvey, Mabel Meffert, May Hall, Caroline Harriss, Marie Hulbert, Catharine and Mary Harriet Livingston, Blair Woodrow, Sue Moore, Onie Chazal, Sarah Pearl Martin, Stella and Nina Camp, Rexie Todd, Dorothy and Marion Long, Avalae Edwards, Martha Kate Rentz, Blanch Whaley, Elsie Meade, Messrs. Robert Nelson, Sam Burford, Julius Brown, Earl Hall, Clarence and Olaf Zewadski, Frank Harris, Norton Davis, Whit Palmer, Welsh Dewey, Landis and Loois Blitch, W. M. Martin, Holmes Walters, Carlisle Izlar, Duncan McDonald, Sam Mathews, John Chazal, Albert Harriss, Fred Meffert, Robert Clarkson and Carl Ray of Martel.

Mrs. Annie Aiken and Miss Mabel Aiken leave Sunday night for a visit of two months with relatives and friends at Plant City, St. Petersburg, Winter Haven and Floral City.

Miss Sallie Spurlin of Lake Weir, arrived yesterday for a several days visit to friends.

Mr. John Rook after a visit of several days to his cousin, Mr. W. K. Zewadski and family, left today for his home in New York City.

Mr. L. R. Chazal and family returned today to their summer home at Woodmar.

Miss Annie Benton Fuller returned today from a visit of a week to Miss Frances Melver at Lake Weir.

Miss Florence Harvey, who has been the attractive young guest of Mrs. J. H. McClymonds for the past fortnight, has returned to Tampa.

Among the Leesburg baseball fans attending the Ocala-Leesburg game on the local diamond yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Watts and son Franklin, Mr. Robert McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Miss Clark, Mr. A. B. Medlin and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mote. A number motored up in the morning, spending the time until the game was called sight-seeing. Miss Clark and a friend made the trip in her pretty Ford coupe, which has the distinction of being the only one of its kind in this section.

Miss Ella Tydings, former missionary in the foreign fields, has concluded visits to Gainesville, Palatka and other places, where she has been addressing meetings at the various churches and has joined her mother, Mrs. L. B. Tydings at Williston.

Mrs. Henry W. Long is a guest until tomorrow of Mrs. J. W. Hood. She will return in the afternoon to Martel to be present Sunday at the unveiling of the monument to General Long.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Jeffords leave tomorrow for an extended stay at Clyde, N. C., after which they will move around among the mountain resorts before returning home.—Clearwater Sun.

A merry holiday seeking party was that of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Ley and three charming daughters, the Misses Hallie, Esther and Ruth Ley, who motored to Daytona yesterday morning. The party will spend a few days on the coast, returning in about a week. While at Daytona they will stop at the Daytona Beach hotel, where they will be joined by Mrs. Ley's sister, Miss Lillie Roux.—Orlando Sentinel.

Mrs. H. J. Heet and daughters, Misses Aurelia, Eleonora, Cecilia and son Robert, will leave Monday for Germantown, Ill., where they will join

Mr. Heet who preceded them several weeks ago. Mr. Heet and family have lived in Florida five years, four years at Summerfield and one year in Ocala, but have decided to remove to their former home in Illinois.

Splash Party for Miss Hall

It is not for the visitors now in the city there would be very little entertaining at this season, but each day sees one or more affairs given in honor of some guest from a distance.

One of these informal parties is being given this afternoon and evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor at their Lake Weir place in honor of Miss May Hall of St. Petersburg, the attractive and vivacious visitor of Miss Mabel Meffert. The party includes forty members of the school and college set and with the host and hostess left the city in cars between 4 to 5 o'clock. Immediately on reaching the Taylor dock, the most commodious on the lake, a swim is to be enjoyed, then picnic, supper consisting of several varieties of sandwiches, ice tea and frozen watermelon will be relished. After supper dancing and boating will consume the hours intervening before the time of departure arrives.

Invited to be present on this delightful occasion were Misses Hall, Meffert, Rexie Todd, Margaret Wade, Caroline Harriss, Marie Hulbert, Onie Chazal, Blair Woodrow, Franklin Harvey, Martha Kate Rentz, Elizabeth and Meme Davis, Kathleen Spencer, Stella, Nina, Nettie and Carita Camp, Elsie Bowen, Eva Mae Harrell, Theo Beckham, Messrs. William Camp, Bruce Meffert, Leslie and Pat Anderson, Robert Nelson, Clarence and Olaf Zewadski, Julius Brown, Albert Harriss, John Chazal, Norton Davis, T. D. Lancaster, Jr., Robert, Alfred and Kenneth MacKay, Welsh Dewey, Earl Hall, James Hall, John Shacklett of Nashville, Roscoe Meffert, Mrs. G. S. Scott, Misses Margaret and Mamie Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Camp, Mrs. E. L. Carney and Mrs. W. K. Zewadski, Jr. of Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Camp and sons, Misses Camp and guests, Misses Bowen and Harrell joined Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Camp today at Lake Weir for a week-end stay.

Mrs. William Moyers, who has been the guest for several days of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. S. G. Moyers at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Edward Badger, has gone to Douglas, Ga., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Brewer.

Miss Lillie Oder of Yalaha is the guest of Mrs. Fred Weihe, arriving yesterday. She came especially to be with Mrs. Weihe during Mr. Weihe's absence at Black Point, for which place he leaves Sunday to attend the officers' school.

A delightful informal social affair of tomorrow evening will be a supper party at which Mr. Frank Harris, Jr. will entertain a few friends.

A gold medal contest under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was held last night at Oak. The contestants were Maryela Bray, Lottie Curry of Ocala, Hubert Denham of Reddick, Edna Murphy, Vera Gray and Lester Wilson of Griner Farm. The judges, Mrs. Taylor Stroman, Ocala, Mrs. Spencer of Zuber and Mr. Turner of Kendrick, awarded the medal to Hubert Denham. An interesting feature of the evening was the repetition of the entertainment given recently at the Temple, "Little Grandmas from Grandma Land." Those taking part went to Oak on the 1 o'clock train, spent the afternoon picnicking and returned home after the performance in automobiles.
